AIM

The aim of the Riverland & Mallee Vocational Awards is to acknowledge and reward individuals that have excelled in their training. They have the opportunity to be recognised for their potential, enhance their profile and build their career.

ELIGIBILITY

Eligibility requirements for the Riverland & Mallee Vocational Awards are as follows:

Apprentice of the Year must be in their third or final year during 2021.

Trainee of the Year must have completed 6 months of their traineeship at the time of application.

All Apprentices and Trainees must be undertaking a contract of training registered with the South Australian Traineeship and Apprenticeship Services.

All successful finalists will be required to present themselves before the judging panel at a date to be advised in November 2021.

If a finalist, you must attend the Awards Dinner and Ceremony to be held on Friday February 11th 2022, at the Berri Resort Hotel, subject to COVID-19 requirements at that time.

The winning Apprentice of the Year is expected to be available at the following year Award Ceremony as a guest speaker and to present an award.
